

Notice Type: Special Notice*Industry Day Announcement – ICBM Development, Operations, and Sustainment (IDOS)*Synopsis:

The Air Force Nuclear Weapon Center (AFNWC) is announcing an industry day for the possible ICBM Development, Operations, and Sustainment (IDOS) service contract(s). The existing support contract, Integration Support Contract 1.0 (ISC 1.0), supporting the AFNWC has a contract end date of July 2027. AFNWC intends to utilize the General Services Administration (GSA) One Acquisition Solution for Integrated Services Plus (OASIS+) for this IDOS effort. To keep Industry up to date on IDOS and provide an overview of AFNWC's mission, the government will conduct an industry day on the following dates.

By indicating participation through the above link, the government will provide interested parties with the documents specified in the table above as part of the pre-recorded general session.

If you indicate you would like to participate in a one-on-one meeting, the government will schedule an appointment for your organization. This will be held in-person on a day and time between 25-27 August 2025, and will provide appointment confirmation prior to the event. This session is for acquisition-strategy discussions. Come prepared with your questions and/or suggestions, not a company overview.

Please be advised the government intends to publicly release all questions and government responses generated during this industry day event for transparency and access to information, excluding any information that would reveal a potential offeror's confidential business strategy IAW FAR 15.201. Industry day questions and responses will be compiled and officially released via SAM.gov. To ensure impartiality, the identity of those submitting question(s) will not be disclosed in the published government responses.
